How did you hear about the Art & More Artist Cooperative?

Why do you want to be an artist of Art & More Artist Cooperative? What do you hope to get from being a part of our Artist Cooperative?

Work is selected by a committee of current artists who review new work when an artist space becomes available. Your application will be kept on file until we have an opening for a space that is appropriate for your type work (2D or 3D) and can schedule a review. You will be asked to come in and talk about your work and your ability to contribute your talents to our gallery. The committee chair will call and set up a time for you to come and present 5 original finished pieces to the committee. Work is evaluated on the basis of originality of design, craftsmanship, marketability, and appropriateness for our gallery.

For consideration of joining the Artist Cooperative, I understand the requirements of being a member, as well as the commitment to a six month active participation. Being a part of the Artist Cooperative at Art & More involves a $40.00 per month space fee + two or three volunteer shifts per month of operating the gallery. Members also must join a gallery committee and serve in an extra capacity to help with gallery operations. Attendance at membership meetings is required. In addition, Art & More will take a 15% commission from all sales. In the event that I should be chosen to become an artist of the cooperative, I understand that I will be working with and sharing responsibilities with other artists of the cooperative.

I will be able to present myself and my work to the jury committee and will expect a call for an appointment when an appropriate space for my type of work is available.
